SUBJECT: Interview of Witness, Mr. [REDACTED]

Reporting Investigator (R/I) made contact, via the telephone, with Mr. [REDACTED] who identified himself as the General Manager of XSPORT Fitness located at [REDACTED] IL. Mr. [REDACTED] related the following information, not verbatim.

Mr. [REDACTED] recalls the incident on 17 October 2011; in which, an off duty police officer reported that his gun, star, and other property were stolen from a locker in the men's locker room. After the witness was informed of the theft; he observed a small lock, consisting of three tumblers lying on the bench in front of the locker that P/O MCCLAY, said he had placed his property into. The witness explained that the lock did not appear to be cut, and saw that the metal "U" shaped part was separated from the lock body. He further related that the lock was the type that could easily be "popped" open. The witness viewed the security cameras after the incident and did not see any suspicious activity.

[REDACTED] informed the R/I that on 18 October 2011, the overnight porter Devin [REDACTED] cleaning out lockers in the men's locker room; tossing discarded items from empty lockers into a garbage bag. [REDACTED] felt that the bag was unusually weighted down; and found the officer's gun, wallet, and other missing items inside the bag.
